Dear [Firstname],

Have you tried every diet imaginable? With great enthusiasm at the start - only to be bitterly disappointed in the end?

If so, don't blame yourself. It's not your fault.

Here's why: Dieting is difficult. And it doesn't matter what type either. Low calorie. Low carb. High protein. Diet shakes. The bottom line? They are all hard to follow long term. That's a fact.

"Then how can I really lose weight," you ask? The answer is simple [Firstname]. Try the "diet free" diet. AppetiTea™ - an all-natural herbal tea helps you eat less by curbing your appetite.

Caffeine free. No Discomfort. No Side Effects.

There's no mixing powders. No counting calories. No complicated point systems. No starvation. None of that. Instead, just make yourself a cup of delicious all-natural AppetiTea™ and combine it with a sensible meal and exercise and you'll be on your way to a slimmer, sexier new figure.

How's this possible? AppetiTea™ contains a special blend of herbal ingredients that have been selected to cut your intake of foods and snacks.

Eat Less - Weigh Less - The easier way

Most "diets" force you to radically change your eating behavior. While this is good in theory, in practice it's hard to stay on long term.

AppetiTea™ [Firstname], on the other hand, allows you to

Dear [Firstname],

My name is Brenda Gennetten. If you've ever felt lathargic, fatigued or "dog tired," read this story. . .

I'm a very active 48-year old grandmother. But recently my energy seemed to have drained out of me. I'm currently going through pre-menopause, which makes me want to sleep all the time.
Unfortunately, this is not an option in my line of work.

You see, I work 7 different newspaper routes, 7 days a week, delivering over 3,800 newspapers weekly. My day starts at eleven o'clock at night and ends at six o'clock in the morning.

I get up, put on my walking clothes and head down to the printing office to pick up my bundles of newspapers. After folding the morning newspapers, around 2:15 a.m., I'm ready to begin my nine miles of walking. I walk around with my headset on, walking to the tunes! Strange for a 48-year-old grandma? NO, I'm still a kid at heart! I finish my routes generally around 6 a.m. and that's when I start my morning routine: cleaning the house and cooking.

I'm normally quite hyper. So, until recently, I'd get extra energy by taking a little coffee or chocolate. But that stopped working (besides it's unhealthy).

I felt as if someone had "literally hit me over the head with a hammer!"

With the onset of menopause, I was feeling exhausted by the end of the day. I would get home from my paper route and only have enough energy to take off my clothes, take a shower, and pass out.

To make matters worse [Firstname], housework was starting to pile-up and I had no energy to spend time with my husband. This was a real "drag."

I tried every energizer on the market. Both natural and

[MONTH] [DAY], [YEAR]

Dear [Firstname],

Are you fed up with dieting? Sick of not being able to lose weight?

If you're like me, you are. For years I've been watching what I eat - I mean, fat intake. . . calories. . . cholesterol-free. . . everything the doctor ordered!

And I still haven't been able to lose more than a few pounds. And it always seems to come back.

Of course I try not to let the extra weight stop me much. I've always been active - camping, boating, running around after my kids and all. In fact, I started out pretty thin. But after working 15 years as a head cook, making the sweetest baby back ribs you ever want to eat, I must admit I gained a few pounds.

I still go everywhere and do everything. The weight doesn't stop me. So why does it bother me so? Because it's not who I am.

And it was getting worse, because after a recent illness, I just couldn't do much exercise any more.

I got so discouraged. I even tried diet pills because it seemed like I had no other way to take off the pounds. Boy, was I wrong. Those pills didn't do a thing! I was so downhearted I didn't know where to turn.

It was just by sheer luck that I discovered Redusor™, an all-natural, easy-to-swallow herbal supplement that actually helps my body burn calories faster.

Well, you can imagine I didn't believe it would work at first. I've been around the block, and I am tired of paying money for nothing.

But this time, there was no risk. The company said I could try Redusor™ for a full month before I paid anything! Well, in that case, I said to myself, what do I have to lose?

Only my weight, as it turned out. In my first month alone, I lost 10 pounds! Safely, too. (I couldn't even lose half a pound in that time with other products [Firstname].)

Redusor™ works by giving you the exact herbal combination your body needs to get your metabolism working again. The result is, your body burns up more calories naturally, without any side effects - even when you have as much difficulty losing weight as I do. It was a true blessing.

I am so pleased with Redusor™ - and I think you will be too - because it helps you rev up your system, in more ways than one. It also gives you energy you didn't have before.

Now my "get up and go" really wants to go! I have some kind of new pep inside - I've been able to walk up and down outside my home, without getting as tired as before. I can also do my leg exercises now. It's great.

Most important, I keep losing the weight.

Of course, I still keep to a sensible diet, and still keep exercising, because that way I'll lose even more [Firstname]. But I wouldn't be losing weight at all without Redusor™.

Now my devoted husband Richard - he's such a good man - wants to take me on a Caribbean cruise! You can bet I'll keep taking Redusor™ to slim down for that.

Think - where would you like to go if you had more energy. . . less weight. . . and could show off the "new" you?

It's not a dream. You can lose those pounds, just as I did - easily - just by burning more fat, with all-natural Redusor™. It contains no Ephedra or Ma Huang, and is 100% safe.

Best of all, like the company promises, if you don't like it, just return the unused portion or even the empty bottle, and you pay nothing! The company is so sure you'll like it, they're willing to take all the risk. And you take none. Believe me, it's worth it.

Just fill out the certificate above to try Redusor™. I know you'll lose weight. . . get more pep. . . and be as happy as I am [Firstname].

Sincerely,

Mary Anzalone

P.S. If you've been trying for years to lose weight, without success (like I was), Redusor™ herbal supplements can really help. You'll shed the pounds fast. . . safely. . . easily. . . and get more energy too. Plus, you don't pay unless it works! Use the certificate above today.

These statements have not been evaluated by the Food and Drug Administration. This product is not intended to diagnose, treat, cure, or prevent any disease. Consult with your doctor before starting any weight loss program. Redusor™ should be used as part of your overall weight loss plan, which includes a sensible diet and exercise plan. Follow label directions carefully. Testimonials should be considered a best-case scenario. Your results may differ.

Dear [Firstname],

[Date]

To think. . . just a short while ago I was sure my lovemaking days were over. Finished! And then something wonderful happened. Something so amazing, I simply had to share it with you. . . with anyone who's ever experienced a similar problem. Let me explain.

My name is Charles Noble. I'm a 72 year old, semi-retired, limo driver living in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Born in San Diego, California, I moved to Pennsylvania in the 1950's. (My mother, now 98, God bless her, still lives out in Carlsbad, CA.) I've been married twice, the first lasted 27 years.

It was during my second marriage, a few years ago, that "the problem" began. After having open heart surgery, I was obliged to take drugs to reduce my cholesterol level. But that's not all it reduced. The drug interaction put the kibosh on my sex life. Big time. Not good for a guy. . .

whose wife is 14 years his junior!

It gets worse. Those drugs made me go to the john so often, I had to sleep in a separate room so I wouldn't disturb her. That last straw broke the back of our marriage. After 13 years, she called it quits.

I was completely devastated. Lonely. Depressed. And even though I stopped taking those drugs, there still wasn't any fire in my sexual furnace.

At just about the time I hit rock bottom and couldn't feel any lower. . . I heard about it on the radio - an all-natural herbal supplement that's supposed to recharge your sexual batteries. It's called SuperAmore™. To be honest I was more than just a little skeptical. But since it came with a free 30-day trial, with no money to pay up front, I figured "what's to lose?"

Well, as it turns out, I had everything to gain. After taking SuperAmore™ for 15 days or so, my sexual drive shifted into high gear. I mean - no exaggeration - I felt as sexually potent as I did at 19! Remember, this is a guy who had written off his sex life for good.

SuperAmoré™ is an absolutely incredible herb combination. It super intensifies almost every sexual encounter I've had since I started taking it. And I take it regularly. I get a new bottle every month. It makes my entire body turn into a living, breathing organism of sensitivity. Each fiber. Each cell. Each hair is an experience out of this world. I'm seventy-two years old now and let me tell you. . .

it's bigger, and better, and harder - every morning!

And here's the real kicker. SuperAmoré™ not only increases my sexual performance, it boosts my overall energy level as well. I'm not kidding. When I don't take it, I don't have that same pep and vigor.

Look, if I can get these results naturally - without drugs, chemicals or adverse reactions - I'm all for it. SuperAmoré™, in my opinion, is absolutely incredible. It works (boy does it work!), and just one bottle a month keeps me very happy. Plus, it's very affordable, compared to the other alternatives.

Send for your 30-day free trial. Try it out at home for a month. If you're happy, pay the bill that comes with it. If not? Simply return the unused portion or even the empty container. Your bill will be cancelled and that will be that. No hassle. No risk. You really have nothing to lose and I know you're going to love it.

Yours truly,

Charles Noble

Dear [Firstname],

I'm not one to talk openly about my private affairs. Especially my sex life. However, I felt it important to write this letter - to share a disturbing problem I was having and the surprising sex enhancing results I achieved.

First of all, let me assure you. . . I am not a made-up person. I'm a real guy. For the last 31 years I've been working as a cable splicer at a local utility near my home in Gwynn Oak, Maryland.

I was born in 1952 and grew up in the city of Baltimore. As a kid I loved playing baseball, football, and ran track in high school.

Life was good. But not easy. At age eleven I worked on a milk truck before school making early morning deliveries. After that I worked at a local men's store where I became fashion conscious - a sharp dresser. That went over big with the girls. In fact, I developed a pretty good reputation for having a way with women.

One in particular stole my heart. And she's been my wife for the last 30 years. We have two grown children and the sweetest six-year-old granddaughter. . . my pride and joy.

At age 51, I'm a pretty fit person. I roller skate, play golf, and enjoy other active pursuits. But as happens with many people my age, for reasons often unclear, I began to see a decline in my sexual performance.

To put it another way, I was having difficulty "rising" to the occasion. And maintaining it, too. That strong passion I used to feel. . . well, it just wasn't there anymore.

My wife was very understanding. She told me not to worry - it was okay with her. I appreciated that. But, of course, it wasn't okay. Being unable to consummate a romantic evening, to satisfy the woman I love, to enjoy the robust sexual life I once had. . . began to eat away at my self-esteem.

Look, as much as you try to rationalize it, a man needs to be a man.

One day I confided my frustration in a friend on the job who had a similar problem. And I'm glad I did [Firstname]! He told me about this supplement he was taking called SuperAmoré™.

It's specially formulated with all-natural herbal ingredients known to increase sexual desire and performance.

Sure, I was skeptical at first. (Who wouldn't be with all the hype being peddled today?) But my friend swore by it, and suggested I at least give it a try. He told me that the company was offering a free 30-day trial. If it didn't work, I could just return the empty container and pay nothing.

That sounded fine with me, especially because I didn't have to send in any money up front. And you know what? It did work! I couldn't believe it. After taking SuperAmoré™ for a few days, I began to feel my sexual urges strengthening, my old desire returning.

But the true test came the following weekend - in bed. Let me put it this way. SuperAmoré™ did not let me down (if you know what I mean). And it hasn't for the last two years. My wife and I couldn't be happier.

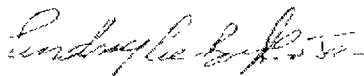

You know what else I like about SuperAmoré™? It's safe. All-natural. No drugs. No chemicals.

Best of all, it doesn't cost a lot of money.

That's why I wanted to write you. To give you the opportunity to try SuperAmoré™ for yourself - free for 30 days - without risk of any kind.

Frankly, I think you'll be amazed at the effectiveness of SuperAmoré™. Without a doubt, it's truly worked wonders for me.

Sincerely,

Lindsay L. Boykin

Dear [Firstname],

Do you feel bloated after your meal? Suffer from irregular bowel movements? Or just feel "stopped up" like you need a good internal cleaning?

If so, read my story. I'll share my secret to discovering blissful regularity and normal bowel functioning.

My name is Victor Sarro. I'm an active 72 year-old grandfather from Elgin, Illinois. I currently own an apartment complex and a farm.

My family is originally from Italy. What you may not know is that many Italians are very big on organic fruits and vegetables. These foods are not processed or sprayed and our bodies can easily digest them. Like my Italian forefathers, I'm a bit of a nut when it comes to natural foods.

I don't eat meat anymore. Meat does not agree with my digestive system. Likewise, most of the foods you purchase at the grocery store are processed and unhealthy.

Few places sell natural organically grown fruits and vegetables, and I don't always have the time to make special trips to purchase them. Lately, due to my busy schedule, I've found myself forced to buy non-organically grown produce from the grocery store. Unfortunately, these tend to be treated with pesticides and other harmful chemicals.

"The problem with food now days is that it's just too toxic!"

Several years ago I noticed that after every meal I felt bloated. "Stopped up." The fruits and vegetables seemed to sit in my stomach and ferment for hours. It made me feel very uncomfortable and uneasy. Not only that, but the pain from bloating was progressively becoming more and more intolerable everyday.

Now [Firstname], at 72 years of age it's hard enough taking care of my rental apartments. Add to that maintaining a ranch with livestock. Top it off with digestion problems and clogged bowels. The result? A very long, exhausting, and painful day.

I've tried every "bowel movement" product on the market. But nothing seemed to work for me. Some made me rush to the bathroom with barely enough time to get my trousers down. Others just didn't work at all. I had almost given up and accepted defeat when I stumbled across what I believe to be a revolutionary all-natural herbal supplement:

ReguCleanse™.

As you can imagine, I was more than a little apprehensive about trying it since nothing else I'd tried had worked. But after taking just one pill before each meal, I no longer felt bloated. I can eat virtually as many fruits and vegetables as I want and not be uncomfortable. It's amazing!

A feeling of tranquility engulfs my entire body after every meal.

Here's the deal with ReguCleanse™: It's carefully formulated with ingredients that support your digestive tract while promoting regular bowel movements. More importantly, and especially for a nature freak like me, there's no chemicals. No preservatives. Only 100% all-natural ingredients.

ReguCleanse™ is the only product I've found that works for me. I'm convinced it will work for you, too! Do you know what the best part about it is? You can try the product out for 30-days risk free and without sending any money up front!

Simply tear off the enclosed 30-day Free Trial Certificate. Sign it. Mail it. The company will send you a one-month supply to try out. If you're satisfied, as I'm confident you will be, pay the bill that comes with it. If not? Simply return the unused portion - even the empty container - you won't owe or pay a cent.

That's about as fair an offer as you'll ever find.

Relief is just around the corner! Mail in your 30-day Free Trial Certificate. Let the "pure bliss" begin.

Sincerely,

Victor Sarro
